Dedication

Mr. Penny at work in lab

The Senior Class of Cleveland School dedicates this 1964 Edition of THE RAM to MR. EDESEL VICTOR PENNY for his many contributions to education. We'll never forget the sincere interests that he takes in each student's personal progress.

To you, Mr. Penny, we give our sincerest appreciation.

Mr. Edsel Victor Penny

... our flag at half-mast honoring President Kennedy.

(Well, it isn't exactly Pepsie, but it's refreshing.)

School Life

... lounging after lunch .

Surprise !!

exams, dates, exams, ballgames, exams, dances, exams, parties, exams, movies, exams...

Is Serious

Work! Work! Work!

Boo!! I'll bet I scared you!

... ice cream break at recess .

Who is that man with the camera??

But Filled With Fun

Believe it or not, we're taking a test.

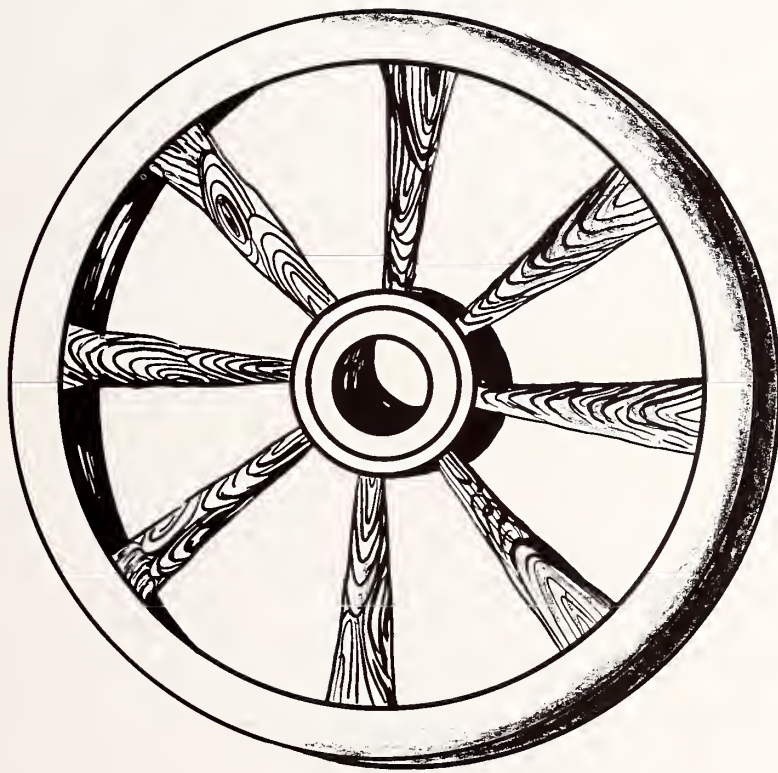

(sigh) Just two more periods to go!

For Everyone

Well, we'll make it one day.

The wheel is a symbol of our administration which enables the school to function in an orderly manner. The administration offers a helping hand to each individual.

EDNA FRANCES BROWN
"Life is just a span: I'll enjoy every inch of it."

STEPHEN MICHAEL BUFFKIN
"Books don't phase me."

GEORGIE RUTH BYRD
"Humor and laughter so well agree,
I think they were mixed just for me."

GENE DOUGLAS CARROLL
"It's not what you do; it's what you get caught doing."

JOSEPH CARLTON CHADWICK
"If bright remarks were grains of sand; I'd be a desert."

JUDY CAROLYN CLIFTON
"If she will, she will, and you can depend on it; and if she won't, she won't and that's the end of it."

MARY RUTH CLIFTON
"Never worried, never hurried, just happy and carefree."

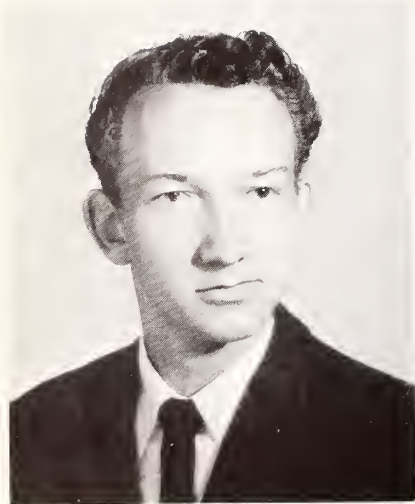

BETTY JEAN COATS
"Mild her manner, soft her talk, sweet her face, and stately her walk."

FRANCES ELLEN EARLES
"All that you do, do with your might; things done by halves are never done right."

KEITH BRAXTON JOHNSON
"His strength was in himself and he moved the world by his character."

LARRY ARCHIE JOHNSON
"In thy face, I see the map of honor, truth and loyalty."

LINDA SUE JOHNSON
"Original, surprising, with mind keen and quick, a pretty lass, a friend in thin or thick."

EDITH ANN LANGDON
"And still they wondered and still they gazed that one small head could carry all she knew."

SALLY KAY LANGDON
"Not so tall, really quite small, dear and sweet and loved by all."

MALINDA MCGEE
"Precious things come in small packages. Gee, I'm glad I'm small!"

JUDY LYNN MATTHEWS
"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

LINDA LORRAINE MESSER
"Get me that which has quick laughter; I haven't time for tears."

BETTY ELIZABETH MOORE
"She has a natural pleasantness that you so seldom find."

KATHY JO PLEASANT
"I like my life spiced. It adds more flavor to it."

ROBERT GLENN PIERCE
"There is no genius in life like the genius of energy and activity."

NANCY ELLEN JOHNSON POOLE
"To one who waits, a moment seems a year."

KATHERINE LEE PRINCE
"There's nothing half so sweet in life as love's young dream."

VELATOR SNOW REVELS
"I have lived in the past, I love the present, and I am looking to the future."

JOHN LEO SMITH, JR.
"His popularity may be counted by his multitude of friends."

GARY KEITH SORRELL
"Never speak sense when nonsense will answer the purpose as well."

BRENDA SUE STEPHENSON
"One who deserves much, needs not another's praise."

MICHAEL STEPHENSON TRADER
"The rule of his life is to make business a pleasure and pleasure his business."

BETTY SUE WALTON
"The reward of a thing well done is to have done it."

Class History

Our Senior Class of 1964 began its twelve years of scholastic training in September, 1951. Those eight years in grammar school passed by slowly but with many achievements, defeats, failures and much excitement we reached high school.

High school was new to us because we weren't used to the idea of changing classes and the many new teachers. Our freshman year brought much excitement. Those with athletic abilities selected to be on the J. V. basketball team were Judy Clifton, Betty Jean Coats, Betty Johnson, Janet Johnson, Edith Langdon, Malinda McGee, Betty Moore, Kathy Pleasant, Brenda Stephenson, and Velator Revels. Jo Ann Honeycutt and Nancy Johnson were chosen for the girls' varsity team. The J. V. boys were Jack Austin, Tim Bunn, Dickie Hatcher, Tommy Ives, Howard Johnson, Keith Johnson, James Parrish, Bobby Pierce, Tommy Pope, Johnny Smith, Keith Sorrell, Michael Trader, and Russell Wood. That year Judy Matthews became a cheerleader. The class officers were President, Johnny Smith; Vice-President, Edith Langdon; Secretary, Judy Matthews; and Treasurer, Tommy Pope.

Being familiar with high school, we began our Sophomore year. Our Beta Club members were Jo Ann Honeycutt, Edith Langdon, and Dorothy Honeycutt. The cheerleaders that were chosen that year were Betty Jean Coats and Kathy Pleasant. The class officers were President, Dickie Hatcher; Vice-President, Howard Johnson; Secretary, Ann Blalock, and Treasurer, Edith Langdon. Those in our class that received their first letters for outstanding athletic ability from the Monogram Club were Jack Austin, Bobby Pierce, and Russell Wood. The girls were Jo Ann Honeycutt, Edith Langdon, Malinda McGee, Velator Revels, Judy Matthews, Kathy Pleasant, and Betty Jean Coats.

Highlights making our Junior year so outstanding was the production of the Junior-Senior Prom, sponsored by Mrs. Louis D. Boyette and Mrs. Jean Stephenson. Our class officers that year were President, Russell Wood; Vice-President, Johnny Smith; Secretary, Betty Moore; and Treasurer, Marcelee Barber. Malinda McGee was added to the cheering squad that year. Howard Johnson was a page boy for the Senate in Raleigh. Those who received awards that year were Brenda Sue Stephenson, Home Economics Award and Edith Langdon, History Award. That year Howard Johnson and Johnny Smith were chosen to attend Boy's State. Our marshals were Chief, Edith Langdon; Jo Ann Honeycutt, Edna Brown, Betty Moore, and Brenda Stephenson. That year our class was honored with a free trip to the new State House, which was sponsored by the Benson American Legion.

At last the time most dreamed of has arrived. We are Seniors. We are thrilled at becoming Seniors because we are to receive our class rings, take a trip to Washington, and receive diplomas at the end of school. Our officers are Howard Johnson, President; Vice-President, Bobby Pierce; Secretary, Betty Gaye Johnson; Treasurer, Kathy Pleasant. The mascots and superlatives have been chosen. We are looking forward to our play which will be in the Spring and many other things.

This is our history and we have truly enjoyed every minute of the twelve years spent at Cleveland School.

Last Will and Testament

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-Four, being of sound mind and spirit, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To our parents, we express our deepest gratitude for their patient prodding and loving kindness.

ARTICLE II

To our Senior sponsors, we are humbly indebted for their understanding and tolerance.

ARTICLE III

To our principal, we offer our thanks for being on our side throughout all our pranks and devilish deeds.

ARTICLE IV

To the faculty members, we leave memories, good and bad, of noise and fun.

ARTICLE V

To the Juniors we leave the Senior homerooms, wonderful sponsors, and all the troubles, trials and joys of being Seniors.

ARTICLE VI

To the Sophomores we leave all the burdens and privileges of being upperclassmen.

ARTICLE VII

To the Freshmen we leave the long ladder of learning, fun, heartaches, and headaches, hoping that you will enjoy it as fully as we have.

ARTICLE VIII

- I, JIMMY ADAMS, leave my English book to any of the lucky people who make it into the Outer Limits.
I, JACK AUSTIN, leave my French book to E. O. Adams if he can translate it.
I, MARCELEE BARBER, leave my frosting to Pasty Pollard, as if she needs it.
I, JANICE BARBOUR, leave my witty ways to Kenneth Hargis.
I, BRENDA BEASLEY, leave all my class rings from Fuquay and LaFayette High Schools to Phyllis Jones saying "Get them all!"
I, RAY BEASLEY, leave my ability to drop bookkeeping for two days to anyone who wants to miss a bookkeeping test.
I, EDNA BROWN, leave everything I can't take with me to Barbara Hawkes.
I, STEVE BUFFKIN, leave my ability to get the car and stay out every night to L. R. Smith.
I, GEORGIA RUTH BYRD, leave to Joan Smith my ability to go steady three years without getting a diamond before she graduates.
I, GENE CARROLL, leave my ability to win "Most Intellectual" and still sleep through the day to Frankie Stephenson.
I, JOE CHADWICK, leave my ability to hide behind the flagpole to George Hayes.
I, JUDY CLIFTON, leave to Becky Byrd "Smoky Places" saying, "Anybody got a light?"
I, MARY RUTH CLIFTON, leave my ability to be engaged and still graduate to Sandra Parrish.
I, BETTY JEAN COATS, leave my honor as F. F. A. Sweetheart to Carolyn Stephenson.
I, FRANCES EARLES, leave to Brenda Benson my ability to get to Coats and back without getting caught, plus getting the boy she wants.
I, WILLIAM H. HATCHER, leave nothing, saying, "Rejoice, the Hatchers are gone!"
I, DAN HOLLAND, leave my ability to learn History to Teresa Stephenson, who can fulfill the responsibility.
I, JO ANN HONEYCUTT, leave my ability to throw my weight around on the basketball court to Bernice Hardee.
I, TOMMY IVES, leave my excess gas to Thomas Watkins; he uses more than I.
I, BETTY GAYE JOHNSON am leaving happily for Hardbarger's in hopes to be with someone there.
I, HOWARD JOHNSON, leave to Sid Sauls the hole in the wall in the cabin.
I, KEITH JOHNSON, leave my '63 Chevrolet to Brinda Johnson saying, "Don't drive and drink!"
I, LARRY JOHNSON, leave my "blankety-blank" broken typewriter to Helen Morris, saying, "Fix it, if you can."
I, LINDA JOHNSON, leave Daisy Honeycutt my geometry notes in hopes she can figure them out.
I, EDITH LANGDON, leave a bottle of nerve pills and headache tablets to Andy Partin, saying, "The job's on you, old boy."
I, SALLY LANGDON, leave my quiet ways to Gayle Byrd.
I, MALINDA MCGEE, leave my ability to play basketball the first two years in high school and cheer the last two to anyone who can make the grade.
I, JUDY MATTHEWS, leave to J. C. Matthews all my conceit saying, "The Matthews have it knocked."
I, LINDA MESSER, leave my good times at the "Free Show" in Fuquay to Janice Thrower hoping she can take it.
I, BETTY MOORE, leave happily for a better life, eating doughnuts in Fuquay.
I, KATHY PLEASANT, leave Cleveland for U. N. C. (and Danny).
I, BOBBY PIERCE, leave my ability to play center to Ronnie Stephenson, saying, "Dunk it, fella."
I, NANCY POOLE, leave my ability to get married and still finish school to Phyllis Higgins.
I, VELATOR REVELS, leave to Gail Stephenson my ability to finish school and not get married.
I, JOHNNY SMITH, leave my excellent French notes to Betty Dupree if she can find them.
I, KEITH SORRELL, leave Cleveland Byrd my way of getting along with women.
I, BRENDA STEPHENSON, leave to Gail Dupree everything except Don; I can't part with him.
I, MICHAEL TRADER, leave my ability to date Freshmen girls to Kent Trader.
I, BETTY WALTON, leave my ability to cry right along with Mrs. Chadwick over "touching" things to Thelma Coats.
I, RUSSELL WOOD, leave my ability to get by without very much effort to Annette Wall.

Class Poem

Time seems short when we are free,
But soon we must from each one flee,
Our tears and joys and laughters shared,
We must take leave from those we have cared.

Twelve long years we have toiled together,
Our cares and wants have slowly withered,
Sad farewells we shall to each pay,
And dream and pray of a life-long day.

Our debt to education must be fulfilled,
We owe so much to those who live,
Our parents, and friends, and teachers all,
A debt we owe to those who might call.

From this wheel we will turn away,
And divide the long clasped hands that lay,
There is a God we must believe,
And put all our trust for him to receive.

Guided by he—followed by thee,
We are the makers of our own life's key,
Yesterdays are gone, today is here, and tomorrows are near,
We must win out for all we hold dear.

MRS. LOU JOHNSON

Special Recognition

To Mr. Bruce A. Coats, we wish to express our appreciation for the years of service that he has given our school. Since he has become head coach, he has led his boys to two baseball championships, one basketball championship (62-63), and three basketball conference championships. His girl's basketball teams have also won three conference championships. Four years ago, he instituted our first guidance counseling system which has enabled the students to plan for a better future. For these reasons and many more, we offer our thanks.

Rams in

Hey let's twist, Sonny.

Let them have it boys, we'll win anyway.

E. O. says, "I'll bet I can jump higher than you can."

Quit pushing, Bobby.

Is it a bird? Is it a plane? Only our boys know for sure.

Action!

Jo Ann says, "Take it easy girls; I'll be there in a minute."

Could it be that Faye is practicing her ballet.

No wonder Katherine is such a good guard and forward; she has four arms and four legs.

Mr. Turner has really got'em hopping these days. Run and catch Bernice, Cecelia.

Watch out Brenda, they got'cha covered.
